

Weatherford is a leading oilfield services company. Operating in more than 75 countries, the Company answers the challenges of the energy industry with its global talent network of approximately 17,000 team members and approximately 380 operating locations, including manufacturing, research and development, service, and training facilities.

Our goal is to address the headwinds facing the industry, and revolutionize the oilfield with digital technology, integrated solutions, and world-class talent.

We accept every challenge for the benefit of our Company, our industry, and the world. Our technology leadership delivers solutions that rise to every occasion, supply the best outcomes in each operation, and give power to all customers.

NextGen is a global leadership development program that is designed to accelerate development of defined competencies and skill sets to prepare you for future leadership positions.

WE ARE HIRING

Field Engineer Trainee with Bachelor Degree in Computer, Mechanical Engineering or Petroleum Engineering
Graduation Year: 2020 - 2021

Requirements:

- As a part of Nationalization strategy, we are looking for Vietnamese nationality only;
- Excellent communication skills (both oral and written);
- Strong problem solving, critical thinking, judgment and decision-making skills;
- A strong work ethic and leadership potential;
- Proven ability to work in a team environment;
- Requires extensive travel both domestically and internationally and extended stays away from home;
- Willingness to relocate and work in remote locations over several years;
- Availability to be on-call 24/7; travel up to 100% of the time required;
- Ideal candidates have worked in field-based roles before or during their studies.

Interested applicants who match the job criteria, please submit your CV to https://weatherford.recsolu.com/external/requisitions/cqHD_b91eb3Ga5ZRJcVlzA by no later than 31 July 2021.